

The Town of Brookhaven Celebrates Black History Month

posted on 2/25/2013 12:16:12 PM

February 25, 2013

Farmingville, NY - On Thursday, February 28, join Supervisor Edward P. Romaine and members of the Brookhaven Town Board for a Closing Ceremony celebrating and commemorating Black History. This year we celebrated Brookhaven Town's 22nd Annual Black History Month, and as the celebratory month comes to a close, the spirit of black history continues every day, in the many and varied individual contributions and community achievements in Brookhaven Town. Throughout the month of February, a creative collection of artwork has been on display featuring the beautiful paintings of local artists. This display is located at the second floor gallery of Town Hall. The pieces on display were provided by Tracy Todd Hunter, founder and president of the "Of Colors," a creative collection of artwork presented at Artspace in Patchogue. At the event, the Supervisor will highlight the collection of The East End African-American exhibit, currently on display in Riverhead at the Suffolk County Historical Society: Hidden & Forbidden: Objects of Intolerance Evolving Depictions of Blacks in America.

DATE:

Thursday, February 28 at 6:00 p.m.

WHERE:

Brookhaven Town Hall 2nd Floor Auditorium
One Independence Hill, Farmingville, NY 11738

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258